RUTH STAR IN BOSTON VICTORY

Detailed Play, Inning By Inning, Shows Mastery of Big Red Sox Twirler

Chicago, Sept. s .- While the man-Chicago, Sept. 8.—While the man-agers and umpires were conferring an was out to McInnis, unassisted. Mann immense horseshoe of roses was flied to Whiteman. The crowd turned brought to the home plate and preits attention to the formation of six sented to Fred Mitchell, manager of the Chicago team. Charles Deal, third Paskert let the third strike go by and baseman of the locals was given a big was called out. No runs. No hits. No bouquet of roses.

The umpires were assigned as fol-Balls and strikes-O'Day; first base, Hildebrand; second base, Merkle, Shean moving to second. Klem: third base, Owens,

The game in detail was as follows: chered as he walked to the plate, Vaughn's first pitch was a strike. Hooper bumped the second offering down the first base line and was out. Merkle to Vaughan. Shean took two strikes and then dropped a Texas lea-guer in right. Strunk forced Shean Deal to Pick, the Chicago second baseman losing a chance for a double play by a momentary fumble. Strunk tried to advance to second on a short passed ball and was thrown out, Killifer to Hollocher. No runs. One-hit. No errors.

First Inning-Cubs-Flack fanned, the third strike being called when it shot over the outside corner, shoulder high. Hollocher grounded out, Shean to McInnis. Mann sent a duplicate grounder at Shean, but the ball hopped over the second baseman's head for a single. the far corner. Pick ,who made his world series de-

No. runs. Two hits. No errors. Second Inning .- Red Sox-White-Vaughn to Merkle, placing a nice bunt phy, scored second. Whiteman going close to the line. Scott took a ball and a strike, and then filed to Flack, Thomas' grounder bounced high in the air, but a fast play retired him, Merkle to aughn. No runs, One hit. No errors. Becond Inning. — Cubs. — Ruth's control seemed not of the best. His first two pitches to Deal were high The next two were calland wide. ed strikes and Deal then grounded out, Ruth to McInnis. Killifer was applauded when he came to bat. grounded out, Shean to McInnis. Vaughn also drew a patter of applause from the fans. He fouled out to Agnew. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Third Inning.—Red Sox—Agnew waited till the call was three balls and two strikes and then fouled out to Ruth was cheered when he came up. He drove a hard liner to center. Paskert stumbled, but recovered quickly and captured the ball. Hooper caught a curve on the end of his bat and drove it safely to left. Hooper went out stealing, Killifer to Hollocher. No runs. One hit. No er-

Third Inning - Cubs. - Flack singled to short centre the hit dropping between Shean and Strunk, Hollochomas to McInnis, the veteran first baseman making a good catch of a wide throw. Flack went to second on the play. Mann grounded out, Shean to McInnis, Flack taking third. Paskert grounded out, Scott to McInnis. No runs. One hit. No er Fourth Inning - Red Sox-Vaught lost control and passed Shean. Strund bunted a pop fly to Vaughn. White-man made his second hit, a looping drive which just cleared Hollocher's mitt. Shean went to second. Shean scored on McInnis' hard single to left, Whiteman moving to second. bunted a pop fly, which Deal caught Whiteman barely scrambled back to second in safety. Thomas fauned, swinging heavily at the third strike. One run. Two hits, No

Fourth Inning - Cubs - Merkle drew a high fly to Hooper. Pick fanned, offering weakly at the third strike, which was low and wide. Deal put up a high fly which Hooper had no trouble in capturing. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Inning-Red Sox-Agnew out, Deal to Merkle. Ruth was again cheered when he came to bat. Vaughn worked carefully and fanned the big Boston pitcher. The feat drew the first pot cheering from the shivering crowd. Hooper grounded out. Vaughn to Merkle. No runs. No hits. No er-

Fifth Inning-Cubs-Killifer's high fly dropped into Whiteman's hands. Vaughn fouled twice, then swung at a curve and missed for the third strike. Flack was hit on the head. but showed no Ill effects as he went to first. Hollocher flied to Strunk. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Sixth Inning-Red Sox-Shean ran his string up to the three-and-two count and then let the third strike Strunk drove a sharp grounder at Vaughn, who threw him out to Merkle. Flack captured Whiteman's single inning was established. foul fly after a short run. No runs. greatest slugfest in professional base-

No hits. No errors.
Sixth Inning—Cubs—The crowd began to root for a Chicago run as Mann came to the plate. The left fielder responded with an easy fly to Hooper. Paskert hit safely to center, and the circuit of the bases during the lucky—rooting started again. Merkle drove a for Chicago—seventh inning, and 24 hit through the box and over second base. Paskert advancing to the middie station. Pick with orders to sacrifice, popped a foul fly on his first attempt. He then grounded out to McInnis unassisted, both runners mov-With an opportunity to sew up the game, Deal flied to Whiteman. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Seventh Inning-Red Sox-McInnis filed to Paskert in short centre. Hollocher made a fine stop of Scott's sharp grounder and threw him out at first. Thomas fanned on thre pitched balls. No runs. No hits. No errors Seventh linning—Cubs—The band halted the proceedings by playing "The Star Spangled Banner." The players, with the exception of Thomas, at civillan salute, the Great Lakes sailor coming to the military this inning. No runs. No hits. No er-

Eighth Inning—Red Sox—Agnew went out, Deal to Merkle. For the third time the crowd rooted for a hit from Ruth. He fanned on three pitched balls, fouling the first and swinging heavily at two sharp-breaking curves that followed. Hooper out. Pick to Merkle. No runs. No hits. No

Eighth Inning-Cubs - Holloche errors.

Ninth Inning-Red Sox-Shean walked. Strunk sacrificed, Vaughn to Whiteman fanned, the third strike being a foul tip. McInnis was purpose ly passed. Scott grounded out First Inninf.—Red Sox—Hooper was ly passed. Scott grounded out. No errors.

Ninth Inning-Cubs-Merkle to Whiteman. O'Farrell batted ror Pick. He waited carefully until the count was three and two and then popped to Thomas. Deal beat out a hit down the third base line. Mc-Cabe ran for Deal. On the hit and run Killifer flied to Hooper. No runs. One hit. No errors.

CHILCOOT TROTS OFF WITH CHARTER OAK

Hartford, Sept. 6 — Chilcoot, the coutside corner, shoulder ther grounded out, Shean Mann sent a duplicate Shean, but the ball hopes escond baseman's head Paskert singled sharpand Mann went to third mann sent to third the mann sent and place of the second on the throw to the course of the ly to left and Mann went to third gins over Alma Forbes, driven by Paskert taking second on the throw to Townsend Ackerman. Hollyrood Kate, second on the throw to Merkle ran his string a roan mare, beat Alma Forbes in a on Pick, Ruth induced him to line Fairy Wand came close together is a market along third heat and took second to Whiteman. to three and two and then walked, close third heat and took second filling the bases. This brought up money for the race.

The 2:07 trotting event was won by but in a world series pinch. Pick. Brescia, the bay mare by Bingara, on the fourth pitch flied to White- Driver Rodney forced the mare up from a thin getaway in the first heat and came under the wire in a whipman opened with a single to centre.

It was a fast grounder between Holdriven by Pop Geers. Kelly De McInnis sacrificed Forest, the roan mare driven by Mur-

The 2:09 trot went to Lord Stout in three fast heats, the Virginia stallion beating Jeannette Speed in the first and final heats.

The meeting was attended by large crowd, Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb cupied a box and made a short address between races. The summarles: 2:07 Trot; Three Heats; Purse $1,000. Brescia (Rodney)1 Kelley De Forest (Murphy) ...6 Gentry C. (Geers)2 Bacelli (Lee) 5 3 3 Northspur, Zomreet and Legal W.

also started. Time, 2:081/4, 2:071/4, 2:091/4 Chilcoot (Murphy)1 Hollyrood Kate (Dodge) ...3

Alma Forbes (Ackerman) ...2 Bonie Dell (McDonald)4 3 5 June Red, The Royal Knight, Mint Mark, Mignola and Lotto Watts also started. Time, 2::061/4, 2::071/4, 2:071/4. Jeannette Seed (Cox)3 Selah Baird (Murhy)3 Dick Watts (Rodney)4

Hollyrood Naomi also started. Time, 2:11 1/4, 2:10 1/4, 2:10 1/4. Time Trial to Bent 2:26 Trotting. forman Dillion (Serrill) won.

SPORTING NOTES

Being with a champion team is r ew experience for Max Flack. was a member of the Chicago Federals which won the pennant in 1915.

Bill Killefer, who is one of the Cubs' stars during the present world's series, took a good rest during the last few days of the season at his home in Paw Paw Mich. Killeger worked hard all season and was in a large measure responsible for the success of his club. Realizing that the great catcher, who is not in the best of was badly in need of a rest, Fred Mitchell told him to go fishing of three bases on balls. Shean, who second invitation.

Players of the Hamilton club in the International League, led by Pat Donovan, threatened mutiny recently un-is well over 35 years and played less they were given back salaries. The McCaffrey of the Toronto club at once announced that the Hamilton players would be paid in full just as soon as deficit. The league evidently car-rid Hamilton until the close of the season on Labor Day. The Interna-tional was the only minor league in the country to remain in the field this

ANNIVERSARY OF MEMORABLE CHICAGO-DETROIT GAME Whiteman, 1f 4 0 2

Today is the 35th anniversary of the Scott, as famous Chicago-Detroit baseball game in which the scoring record for a ball came in the seventh frame of a contest between "Pop" Anson's hardhitting White Stockings and the Detroits, then in the National League. Eighteen White Stockings made the circuit of the bases during the luckymen went to bat during that time. The final score of the game was 26 to 6 in favor of Anson's team, which was playing on the home grounds in the Windy City. The Detroit pitcher who figured in the slaughter was, well, never mind who he was. For one thing, let's have a heart, and furthermore, I don't know the guy's name.

TEN EYCK TO MARRY

Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 6-Formal anuncement will be made in a few days of the engagement of Prof. Olive E. Randall teacher of English oratory at the College of Fine Arts in omas,

Syracuse University, and James A. Ten

Sacrince his, alcinnis, Hollocher, Strunk. Left on bases, Americans 5.

Nationals 8. Bases on balls, off Ruth 1, off Vaughn 3. Hit by pitcher, by omas, Eyck, for sixteen years rowing coach 4, by Vaughn 6. Time of game, 1 at the university. Ten Eyck is 60 hour 50 minutes. Umpires, O'Day a a one-handed pickup, throwing out, Scott to McInnis. There were less than half a dozen balls pitched in this inning. No runs No bles. No runs No runs No bles. GAME WON BY BOSTON in Chicago by Score of 1-0 in Fast Game.

Chicago, Sept. 6-The proverbial Boston world's series luck was in evi-dence here yesterday in the first game of the championship baseball series at Comiskey park. The Boston Red Sox, champions of the American League, defeated the Chicago Cubs, National League pennant winners, by a score of 1 to 0. only five hits and Chicago six. Howrun of the game.

expected to hit against a right hand-the rail during the first eighth of a er. Ruth was in his best form, and

In the third Flack opened with a sacrafice and an out, but Ruth sent Paskert back on an easy dribbler to Scott. In the sixth Chicago had another big opening, as Paskert and Markle singled with one out and admerkle single same said Fairy Wand struck Flags; Some said Flags swerved of his so saved Babe with a nice catch on Deal, over the fence, the best play of the game. Vaughn's pitching was little inferhis great speed and his grand assortment of curves, and the Sox pressed while Ruth held in the pinches. Vaughn fanned six of the Sox, twice getting Ruth, the Bostonion fanning with some of his wicked lunges, much 1:10. to the delight of the crowd. Not an extra base hit was recorded against either pitcher.

Next to Ruth the leading Sox star was the thirty-seven year old George Whiteman. He made two of the five Boston hits, one of which aided in Charter Oak; Purse $10,000; for 2:12 the scoring of the lone run, and also played well in the fielding, accepting five chances, several of them diffi-cult. He had to do some lively sprinting to haul in Deal's fly in the sixth.

and made other neat catches.

McInnis, besides getting in the only run of the game, inspired sufficient respect in Vaughn to take no further chances with him. With Shean again n second in the ninth Vangha handed McInnis a pass and then tossed out with his usual ability, a bare handed to his old barn. stop on Vaughn in the seventh being his most spectacular play. The contest showed only patches of seen at these games in former years. The crowd was barely over 19,000, which was almost 13,000 below the first game between the White Sox and

Giants in the same park a year ago. However, the fact that the game at tracted 20,000 shows that baseball still is a pretty lively fellow for a corpse. The crowd was a loyal one and whooped it up for the Cubs whenever th local players gave them a chance. The bleachers and pavilion seats were pretty well filled, but there were many gaps in the reserved grand stand, especially in the $3 box area. On the upper tier there were few besides the baseball writers

Chances to score were rare, but Boston profited by its one big opportunity. Vaughn opened the fourth inwas reported to be out with a bad finger, showed no trace of it. Strunk then attempted to sacrifice, but hit an easy pop to Vaughn.

team recently was shifted to the On- gle over Hollocher's head for his secand straight hit. That sent Shean to second, but Paskert almost caught him over running the bag. McInnis, a the other International League club drove a sharp single down thel eft owners handed over their share of the played the ball fast and put it home, but not in time to beat the runner. The score:

Hooper, rf 4 0 1 Shean, 2b 2 Strunk, cf 3

I	Thomas, 3b 3	0	0	1	1	-
ł	Agnew, c 3		0	5	0	- 6
1	Ruth, p 3		0		1
J	Totals28	1	5	27	s	- d	Chicago Nat	iona	Is.
J	ab	r	h	0	a	à
	Flack, rf 3	0	1	2	0	3
	Hollocher, ss 3		0	2 0	1	1
	Mann, If 4	0	1	0	0	14
	Paskert, cf 4		2		0
	Merkle, 1b 3				2	3
	Pick, 2b 3	0			1	S
	*O'Farrel 1		0	6	tr
	Deal, 3b 4			1	3	14
	† McCabe 0	0	0	0	0	8
	Killefer, c 4	0	0	7	2	1
	Vaughn, p 3	0	0	3	5	Ú

McInnis, 1b 2 0 1 10

Totals32 0 4 27 14 0 · Batted for Pick in 9th. † Ran for Deal in 9th.

Boston0 0 0 1 0 0 Chicago0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Sacrifice hits, McInnis, Hollocher, so. Killifer flied to Strunk, Vaughn years old. He became a widower a plate; Hildebrand at first; Klem at far to Scott's right, but the Bosyear and a half ago.

Red Sox Take First Contest FAIRY WAND BOLTS VICTORY NULLIFIED

Runs Six Furlongs in Belmont Stake In 1:10, But Stewards Disqualify Her

New York, Sept. 6 .-- Fairy Wand, The game developed into a left the fast but ill tempered chestnut handed pitching duel in which Babe filly belonging to Gifford A. Cochran, ed big Jim Vaughn, the king of the ed big Jim Vaughn, the king of the Cubs' staff. The game proved a light hitting affair, in which Boston made tumn Highweight Handicap at Belmont Park, but her efforts went for only five hits and Chicago six. However, the Sox clustered two hits with a base on balls in the fourth inning, when Stuffy McInnis, the crack first baseman of the Sox, went home the veteran Davey Shean with the only run of the game.

I mont Park, but her efforts went for naught. After leading home such remains the Brighton Stable's Flags, George W. Loft's Papp, A. K. Macomber's Hollister and the Peverwyck Stable's Ima Frank, she proved the proving the property hopers. Ed Barrow sprung a surprise by pitching George Ruth, and the Cubs had to readjust their bearings, as they was disqualified and premier honors er. Ruth was in his best form, and mile of the six furiong straight to had no difficulty in breezing through the Cub lineup. He had his tremendous speed and few of the Cubs could get a good crack at the ball.

Then she got it into her head to go go the other side of the track and she swerved over to the extreme outside. She was far ahead of her opponents the cubs.

In the third Flack opened with a seemed to see the mixup differently, single and got around to third on a Some said Fairy Wand struck Flags; Merkle singled with one out and adup to save himself from being thrown

When straightened out again Fairy Wand came tearing down to the for to that of Ruth. He also had judges at a whirlwind pace. She outran all her opponents and at the end was a length in front of Hollister, their advantage in the one inning which had run straight and true that they had their big oportunity, throughout. Despite the score of throughout. Despite the score of felt backward because they were play-lengths she lost by cutting across the ed on private club grounds. The track Fairy Wand sped the six furlongs in the remarkably fast time of

> As soon as the horses returned to the scales the judges called several of is always understood when any club boots greeted the stewards. Garbage, the old crippled gelding by > Aeronaut and Trach, carried the real than the will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.

>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut.
>
> The time will be placed on the schowhite and blue, the colors of Lieut. fifth race. He showed no signs of his many ailments and won without being urged to his utmost. After the Kentucky Stable's Night-stick romped home the winner of the first race W. C. Keant bid him up from $1,000, his entered selling price, His owner bid an Scott for the third out. Scott fielded tional $5 and Nightstick was returned featherweights. Skelly's biggest battle was with George Dixon, and was pulled off twenty-six years ago today as a feature of the memorable fistic carnival in New Orleans. It was in this carnival that John L. lost his title to Jim Corbett, and in which Jack McAuliffe defeated Billy Myers. In Puglistic history Skelly ranks with Dixon, McGovern, Attell and The Welr as the greatest of the little fellows. Skelly was born in Brooklyn in 1870.

JACK SKELLY

Skelly was born in Brooklyn in 1870. He started his long ring career with Official paid attendance, ack Dempsey—and Jack McAuliffe in Total receipts, Palmer's Cooperage in Brooklyn where the famous "three fighting Jacks" were employed at the same time and boxed almost daily with each other. Skelly's active pugilistic ca- Official paid attendance, reer ended in 1896, when he retired Total receipts, to Yonkers, N. Y., to engage in the Players' share, hotel business.

BAT NELSON VICTORY.

Wallace's Kid in the first round at Hegewich, Ill. Bat lived up to his Hegewich, Ill. Bat lived up to his name from the time he was six years old, and the little one-room schoolhouse he attended at Hegewich was the scene of his first championship. Nelson licked all the kids of his size in his neighborhood, and some much larger, but his first real contest was with Wallace's Kid, a young hopeful who travelled with a circus and who pay these fixed shares the winning team will get a sum of $2,000 and each losing players a sum of $2,000 and each losing player a sum of $2,000 and each losing players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after divided among other first division players on a graded ecale. Provided the players of the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players of the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mitchell. If anything is left after the players and the Cubs 23, including Manager Mit and at sixteen he was scrapping pretty regularly often beating his way freight trains to towns in Illinois and Wisconsin where a bout with a little coin attached was offered.

MACKIE WINS ON LINKS.

Over his home course, Jack Mackie the Inwood Country Club profession-al, scored over Jimmy Crossan of Wheatley Hills yesterday. The match arranged a fortnight ago by Inwood and Wheatley Hills golfers, differed from the average in that the respective backers agreed to have a thousand dollars at stake. It was further agreed that the losing side should pay that amount to the Red Cross.

There were two eighteen hole rounds and Mackie won both morning and afternoon. The Inwood man's margin in the first round was 2 up and 1 to play. Later on he won by 4 and 3. The best golf was played in the early hours. Mackle getting 74 to Crossan's 75.

FUNERAL DESIGNS AND BOUQUETS.

JOHN RECK & SON.

DOINGS in SPORTLAND TENNIS TOURNEY DIFFERENT LAWS OF THE Y. M. C. A. REGARDING BIRDS ON TOMORROW

City Are Entered for This Big Event

The city tennis tournament for the championship in singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles will start tomorrow, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock The entries show both by their number and the standing of the players who have entered that it will killing of migratory birds: be the best tournament for the city honors, in the sport, for at least three

The following matches will start promptly at 3 o'clock: E. T. Buckingham vs. G. Macey Wheeler; Gregory Bryan vs. R. K. Buechler; F. M. Fosdick vs. Paul Buechler; George Foster vs. S. M. Hawley; F. B. Hawley vs. H. E. Andrews; Norman Leeds vs. R. I. Neithercut. As soon as any courts are released by the finishing of any of these matches the following four matches will also be played: G. W. Beach vs. J. W. Wheeler, Jr.; J. M. Ricker vs. W. L. Bradley; Dr. R. Warren Hall, the present champion, vs. Bryan Boyden, and J. W. Wheeler, Sr. vs. W. E. Davenport.

In the second round are Dr. R. H. W. Strang vs. J. Grout; E. S. Wolfe vs. the winner of the Hall-Boyden match; David S. Day vs. the winner of the Buckingham-Wheeler match. and W. Seymour Lacy vs. Edmundo Ruspoli.

The drawing in the men's doubles are as follows: D. S. Day and J. Grout vs. Dr. R. W. Hall and W. S. Lacy; Dr. R. H. W. Strang and B. Dungan vs. George Foster and partner: R. K. Buechler and partner vs. Buckingham and G. S. Bryan; in the first round. In the second round G. W. Beach and partner vs. W. E. Davenport and H. E. Andrews; G. M. Wheeler and F. M. Fosdick vs. the winners of the Buckingham-Bryan match and F. B. Hawley and S. M. Hawlet vs. J. W. Wheeler Sr. and J

W. Wheeler, Jr. There are a number of fine coming players among the younger players entered and also the return to tournament play of some of the finest players among the older men. The ommittee is making every effort to make the event most attractive both for the players and the spectators.

We have often heard people say they would like to see the games but Brooklawn Country club wants it understood that anyone who desires to see the matches will have the most unqualified welcome. In addition it

All players are to depend on the score board at the club for the information will be authentic.

The drawings of the mixed doubles will be announced later and play in the men's doubles will begin after the singles tournament is under way.

RECEIPTS AT OPENING

Eoxing fans whose meories go as hand felt in the attendance and refar back as the Corbett-Sullivan fight ceipts of the first game of the world's will remember Jack Skelly, once one series yesterday. The attendance, of the greatest and eleverest of the 19,274, was nearly 13,000 less than the featherweights. Skelly's biggest bat- crowd which jammed Comiskey Park $30,348,00 Each club's share $5,462.64 National Commission's share, $3,034.80 1917.

$39,502.08

It was just twenty-two years ago to-first four games after 10 per cent. has day that Battling Nelson knocked out who travelled with a circus and who was thought to be a wonder with the gloves. Bat put him to sleep easily. After that he began to box frequently, get 30 per cent, of the total of the the bouts being pulled off in the back first four games and 30 per cent, room of a saloon, but few of these contests have found a place in the reconstruction. The club owners, players and National Commission will donate ord books. Nelson was only four-teen when he defeated Wallace's Kid, to war charities.

MISS DETROIT III. WINS

Toronto, Sept. 6—The Miss Detroit III. won the second heat of the race for the international gold challenge power boat trophy here yesterday, overing thirty miles over a five mile in 34 minutes, 35 seconds. The Whip-Po-Will, Jr., of New York, the winner of yesterday's heat, started third, but developed engine trouble. The

The standing of the boats by points for the first two heats follows: Whip-Po-Will, Jr

The United States Employment Service has sent out a call for 60,000 men to furnish the government with a re-quisite supply of timber from Maine forests. The timber contains a pecu-liar type of wood pulp which is need-ad to line shells.

NOT IN CONFLICT

Many Crack Players of the W. K. Mollan, Head of Game Commission Sets Sportsmen of State Right.

of the State Board of Fisheries and a gunner must not exceed the limit of 25 because the letter of the state Game, has issued the following notice to Connecticut sportsmen relative to apparent discrepancies between bird act. federal and state laws regulating the sportsmen in regard to apparent con-flict between the regulations of the Migratory Bird Treaty act and the birds, a thing that the federal law be none, because the conflict is only shall be construed to prevent the sev-eral states and territories from mak-The migratory bird law has already son for such birds beyond the dates derstood. approved by the President in accord-with Section 3 of this act." As to waterfowl-ducks, geese, etc. -the state law and the federal law coincide, the open season being from October to January 15 and the bag limit under both laws being 25 a day in the aggregate of all kinds.

On rail birds there is a difference in the seasonal limits, the open season France where our boys have to travel under the federal regulations begin- in cars used indiscriminately for men ning September I, while by the Con-necticut law it begins twelve days later. The state law, because it does not conflict with the federal treaty law but only still further restricts the matically the effective law for gun-

The same condition exists with relation to wood cock, the state law shortening the federal law by two weeks. The former provides for an open season from October 8 to November 23.

In the case of plover, yellow legs and snipe our season opens two weeks later than the season prescribed by the federal regulation; consequently the Connecticut law is the one which must be observed. On the other hand, the Connecticut limit for a bag of rail birds is 35: but the federal law sets the limit of 25. Here, of course, the federal limi-W. K. Mollan of this city, president tation supercedes the state limit and law would give him no protection in case of a violation of the migratory

It works just the other way in the case of the woodcock bag limits. The federal law allows six woodcock to a To the Sportsmen of Connecticut:

There seems to be a misunderstanding on the part of many of our reduces the limit to five, and is valid Connecticut state laws. There should specifically empowers the state to do. An excellent thing for sportsmen to apparent to the casual reader of the bear in mind is this simple rule: That laws; there is no disagreement in where there is a difference in seasons or bags as indicated by the state and Section 7 of the Migratory Bird federal laws it is always the provision Treaty act approved July 3, 1918, for the shorter season or the smaller reads: "That nothing in this act bag that the Connecticut gunner must ing or enforcing laws or regulations proven its value, as shown by the in-not inconsistent with the provisions creasing number of all kinds of birds of said convention or of this act or of passage; we should do all in our from making or enforcing laws or regulations which shall give further ony for the benefit of sportsmen but protection to migratory birds, their of the public at large, whose economnests and eggs, if such laws and regulations do not extend the open sea-

President State Board of Fisheries and Game. Bridgeport, Aug. 30, 1918.

Those who find fault because not enough Pullman cars are run in this country, might like it better in

> FUNERAL DESIGNS AND BOUQUETS. JOHN RECK & SON.

FINANCIAL

RIGHTS

Connecticut National Bank

BOUGHT AND SOLD

the scales the judges called several of the jocqeys into the stand and then, after long deliberation, ordered the disqualification. This action was not approved by the crowd and hisses and all places and opportunity to prove its welcome.

Corner Main and John Sts.

'PHONES BARNUM 4500-4501-4502.

L20 g*

STATIONERY

Large stock of leading manufacturers' lines always on band. Blank Books, Writing Tablets.

LESS THAN $31,000 Post Office News Store 11 ARCADE.

> WE CAN FURNISH GOOD TENANTS FOR 15 TO 20 RENTS FROM $25 TO $40 PER Cor. Main and Wall Streets

ANDERSON & 53 JOHN ST.

STATE OF CONNECTICUT, DISTRICT OF BRIDGEPORT, 88, PROBATE COURT,

September 3, 1918, Estate of David J. O'Rourke, late of Bridgeport, in said district, deceased.

The Court of Probate for the Dis-National Commission's share, $1,010.50

The players this year will share in allowed six months from the taste to be per cent. of the total receipts of the exhibit their claims for settlement.

Example 10 per cent. has $7,315.20 trict of Bridgeport, hath limited and brave efforts have been crowned by share in allowed six months from the date victory. counts, properly attested, within sain time, will be debarred a recovery. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment

JAMES H. O'ROURKE, Administrator 549 Union Avenue. 14 s*r

Notice to Tax Payers

(resident or non-resident) liable to taxation on real or personal property in the Town and City of Bridgepor on September 1, 1918, MUST FILE with the Tax Commissioner a sworn statement of all taxable property own. ed by such person, firm or corpora-tion in the Town and City of Bridgeport, on specially printed lists fur-nished by the Tax Commissioner, Such lists must be filed during the month of September, 1918.

FAILURE so to do will compel the covering thirty miles over a five mile course in 33 minutes 13 seconds.

The Miss Minneapolis crossed the starting line first and held the lead for fifteen miles. She finished second per cent. will be added as by law required.

LISTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED if each parcel of real estate is not The separately listed, and properly Le Pord II. dropped out at the last scribed, giving metes and bounds: street number or lot number. Buildings thereon must be entered separately from the land value.

FAILURE to file a list deprives the owner of the right to appeal to the Board of Relief. HOURS: 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. daily;

a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday.

▲ F. CONNOR, Tax Commissioner, FUNERAL DESIGNS AND BOUQUETS.

The City National Bank 107 WALL STREET

Capital $500,000 Surplus and Net Profits.. 750,000

THE CONNECTICUT NATIONAL BANK

BRIDGEPORT T. B. WARREN

Real Estate and Insurance 179 Golden Hill St.

Tel. 2417

AMERICA'S PRIDE America's pride in her soldiers flames up anew as they carry our flag onward in the great fight for justice. Let us firmly determine that we will not stop or be discouraged until their

James Staples & Company BRIDGEPORT, CONN.

> Bye and Bye BUT Buy and Buy FRISBIE'S PIE At Your Grocer's

Resorts, Atlantic City, N. J.

Second house from Boardwalk on Virginia Avenue, over-looking Steel Pier HOTEL BOTHWELL Every modern improvement, Highest standard in cuisine and scrvice, Terms & booklet on request

PATENTS A. M. WOOSTER Late Examiner U. S. Patent Office 1115 MAIN STREET, BRIDGEPORT Send for book'et on patents

IF IT IS JUNK SELL IT TO JACOB BRCS. 55 Kossuth Street Tel. Barnum 236-237.

TO NEW YORK Steamer Naugatuck

Leaves Union Street Wharf Weekdays 8 A. M. Secure tickets at Purser's Office The New England Steamship Co.